

Travel and Tourism

BTEC Level 2

Extended Certificate

30 credits

Location: Duration:

Level of course: Exam board:

Are there any entry requirements?

No entry requirements. This qualification is designed to provide specialist work-related qualifications for the Travel and Tourism industry. The qualification gives learners the knowledge, understanding and skills that are required to prepare for employment in the Travel and Tourism industry.

What will I study?

*The UK Travel and Tourism Sector
Understanding Customer Service in Travel and Tourism
Understanding the Nature and effects of World Travel
Development of the UK Travel and Tourism Sector
UK Tourism Destinations
European Holiday destinations
Worldwide Holiday Destinations*

Assessment: How will I be assessed?

The assessment approach allows for learners to receive feedback on their progress throughout the course. Evidence for assessment may be generated through a range of diverse activities including role play, oral presentation and independent research.

What can I do after this course?

Higher education. Level 3 Travel and Tourism.
Hotels, transportation, recreational parks and restaurants are just a few of the different areas that use the services of travel and tourism specialists. The most obvious course of joining the travel and tourism industry is to become a travel agent. As a travel agent, you work with your customers and clients to help them design the perfect trip for their needs, whether it is business or pleasure. You might help them choose a destination, purchase tickets, make hotel or car rental reservations, and advise them on tours and other recreational activities in an area.
There is also an abundance of travel and tourism jobs, such as working at an airport, tour operator, car rental agency, as a tour guide, spa towns or convention centres.

Further details

This is a 30 credit course and requires approximately 180 guided learning hours.

Email contact

Name of Head of Subject: rob.franklin@iscsb.bham.org.uk

